2018 Monochrome Photography Show Opens Call To Artists

PALMER LAKE, CO – The call for artists is now open for the 2018 Monochrome Photography show sponsored by the Palmer Divide Photographers Group and the Tri-Lakes Center for the Arts.

Entries for the juried show will be open through July 23rd, and entry forms, rules, and a complete calendar of events for the show can be obtained at <http://pdphotographers.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/2018-MonochromeShowCallToArtists6.2.pdf>

The Monochrome Exhibition is a juried photography exhibit of fine art. The mission of Monochrome Photography Show is a challenge to photographers to demonstrate their use of light to help define the subject. The light can be natural or artificial; or a combination that enhances the impact, drama, emotion, and/or message of the image.

Images will be juried, judged; and awards for Best of Show, Originality, Technical Excellence, Composition, Overall Impact and Artistic Merit. There are cash prizes in each category.

Colorado photographer Michael Snively will judge the 2018 Monochrome Show. He exhibits at the Colorado Mountain Gallery in Georgetown, and also does commercial work. His work can be seen at <http://www.intimatemuse.com>.

The Show will run September 7 to October 26 at the Tri-Lakes Center for the Arts, 304 Highway 105 in Palmer Lake. The opening reception for the show is 6-8 p.m. on Friday, September 7. The events are free and open to the public.
