NEW ONLINE CLASS ~ Spiritual Conversations:

A Natural Balance ~ Christianity's Contribution to the Global Ecological Conversation

Questions to ponder: Is climate change a consequence of human activity, part of the earth's natural cyclical processes or perhaps both? How does deforestation, pollution, water scarcity and the loss of biodiversity affect our lives?

The first class on July 5th will be an introduction to the online cohort.

July 5 - August 16, 2018

7 weeks ~ Fee: $65

Facilitators: Maria Plafcan & Sister Ana Cloughly, OSB

Thursday Mornings: July 5, 12, 19, 26, August, 2, 9 and 16, 2018
10:00 am to 11:30 am MST

OR

Thursday Evenings: 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm

Class Description: This seven-week course explores the most pressing ecological questions of our time. Our primary goal is discovering how we respond to God's call of caring for the earth. We will examine the issues from scientific, ethical and spiritual perspectives.

Each week you will receive a module containing informational videos, reading material and reflection questions that prepare us for a weekly conversation online.

For more information on this course, please contact: Ana Cloughly, OSB, Director of Contemplative Vision sana@benethillmonastery.org 719-633-0655 x150

Sister Ana Cloughly and Maria Plafcan: As Benedictines we see ourselves as co-creators of our Creator and we have a responsibility to care for our Mother earth. Sister Ana and Maria have a passion for the Benedictine charism of stewarding all God's creation and Maria has been studying and practicing the art of recycling and repurposing for years.
