HealthONE Announces Creation of OrthoONE

Merging of orthopedic practices will bring advanced care to one brand name.

DENVER, CO (February 5, 2018) – HealthONE announced today the merging of its orthopedic practices into one prominent, comprehensive practice known as OrthoONE. This unified brand of orthopedic care will include five adult practices and one pediatric practice covering 13 total locations and 26 physicians for patients across the Denver metro area. The merging of these practices will provide patients a broad array of locations with access to physicians that utilize the newest technology. Patients will benefit from a larger network of physicians and referral options allowing for enhanced patient care.

“As physicians we continually strive to improve patient care and the patient experience,” stated Wade Smith, MD, OrthoONE Trauma at Swedish Medical Center. “The creation of OrthoONE will allow patients to benefit from the most advanced providers in the area while improving patient satisfaction. Our goal is to help our patients return to a full, active life and OrthoONE will make that goal a reality.”

OrthoONE features an experienced team of nationally recognized adult and pediatric physicians to aid patients in achieving their best possible quality of life. OrthoONE’s focus will be unparalleled personal attention and exceptional care. By optimizing resources and expertise, OrthoONE will provide more services in more locations for the care and improvement of patients throughout the region.
