Tim Mead Resigns as President of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum

Tim Mead, President of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, has announced that he will be resigning, effective around mid-May.

"I have been extremely blessed as a life-long fan of the game to spend four decades serving the organization I grew up admiring, and then have the distinct honor and privilege of assuming the role of President of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum," Mead said. "The driving force behind my career in baseball has always been love of the game."

"I made the recent leap with every intention of following in the footsteps of my predecessors, in continuing their efforts in maintaining the Hall of Fame as a critical component of the game," Mead continued. "Try as I might, even with the unwavering support of my family, these last 22 months have been challenging in maintaining my responsibilities to them."

"I want to thank Jane Forbes Clark and the amazing staff in Cooperstown for their dedication and commitment to Preserving History, Honoring Excellence and Connecting Generations. I am confident the fruits of their labor will continue to impact current and future generations in telling the important stories of the wonderful game of baseball."

"It is with regret that the Executive Committee of the National Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors accepted Tim Mead's resignation," said Jane Forbes Clark, Chairman of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum. "As a respected member of the baseball community, Tim has served the game of baseball for decades. His genuine appreciation for the game's history and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum will be greatly missed by us."

Mead, 62, was named president of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum on April 30, 2019 following a 40-year career working for the Los Angeles Angels organization, including the previous 22 years as the team's Vice President of Communications.

A native of Athens, Greece, and a 1980 graduate of Cal Poly in Pomona, Calif., Mead began his career in baseball as an intern in the Angels' Public Relations department in 1980, and his stint with the Angels included four years as Assistant General Manager from 1994-97.

Mead became the seventh president in the 82-year history of the organization. Past presidents include: Stephen C. Clark, Sr., founder of the Hall of Fame and grandfather of current Chairman, Jane Forbes Clark; Paul Kerr; Edward W. Stack; Donald C. Marr Jr.; Dale A. Petroskey; and Jeff Idelson.

Savor the Game's Memorable Moments with 'Picturing America's Pastime'

Celebrate baseball through a unique selection of photographs from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's unmatched archive of baseball photos.

"Picturing America's Pastime: Historic Photography from the Baseball Hall of Fame Archives" is a new book that utilizes the Museum's unequalled collection of photos from baseball history. Revel in the moments we share at the ballpark, the drama of the game and classic images of baseball greats.

Drawing on the Hall of Fame's archive of more than 300,000 unique images, the Museum's curatorial team highlights baseball history in this curated collection of rarely seen photos. The photographs reveal the rich relationship between the camera and the game.

"While it may be cliché to say that a picture is worth a thousand words, it is also an understatement," said Tom Shieber, the Hall of Fame's senior curator and project manager for the book. "They are really worth much more. Images tell stories that go well beyond words. And the honesty and immediacy of a very special type of image – the photograph – makes for a unique relationship between the picture and the history it records."

Each image is accompanied by an historic quote and a detailed caption, often highlighting little-known information about the photographers and techniques used across the 150-plus years covered in the book, which is a must-have addition to any baseball library. The images included stand out as examples of exceptional pho-

Obituary of Roy Edward Dickson "Dick"

Roy "DICK" Dickson, 73 years old, passed away Tuesday May 3rd, 2021 in the North Carolina village of Hayesville, where he had lived for the past 6 years. Dick was the only son of Roy Dickson and Katherine Felner Dickson from Andes, New York. Dick grew up and spent most of his youth in Andes, the "heart of his beloved Catskill Mountains".

He graduated from Andes Central School in 1966, where he was both an exceptional student and athlete. He was involved in the National Honor Society, Saturday Seminars at Oneonta State for exceptional high school students, Student Council, The Tutoring Club, Soccer, Track, Basketball and Baseball, and was crowned the King of the Junior Prom. He was talented enough to receive a soccer scholarship offer from McMurray College, but elected to take an academic scholarship to Albany State University. As many did in that era, he elected to travel the US and worked in the construction industry throughout the country. He finally settled in the city of New Orleans where he was employed at Commanders Palace, one of the few 5-star restaurants in the US at the time, where he apprenticed and learned to be a chef. He then relocated to Florida and worked for several years in a similar capacity at The Chart House Restaurant chain (also upscale). He moved back to Georgia to be with his surrogate Sister and Brother (Bonnie Akens & Jim Degnan). He worked in the Retail grocery industry the balance of his working career for Kroger, Harris Teeter, and Wal-Mart.

Dick was an avid reader, as well as a crossword puzzle wiz. He became a master woodworker and built high end grade furniture. With his passing an encyclopedia was lost. He will be missed by many but especially his status of "favorite uncle" by Lauryn, Ashleigh, Ryan, Lacey and Erin.

tographic artistry, while at the same time lend themselves to interesting, engaging and often surprising stories.

"I'm thrilled that Mango Publishing and the National Baseball Hall of Fame are collaborating to create such an extraordinary book," said Christopher McKenney, president and chief executive officer of Mango Publishing. "Baseball fans far and wide will experience the rich history of baseball through stunning photographs of nostalgic ballparks and baseball legends that capture the timeless game's best moments in history."

Featuring a forward by Hall of Famer and accomplished photographer Randy Johnson and based on the Museum exhibit of the same name.

The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is open seven days a week year round, with the exception of Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. The Museum observes hours of 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Ticket prices are $25 for adults (13 and over), $20 for seniors (65 and over) and $15 for juniors (ages 7-12) and $18 for those holding current memberships in the VFW, Disabled American Veterans, American Legion and AMVets organizations. Members are always admitted free of charge, and there is no charge for active military, career 20-year retired military personnel and children 6 years of age or younger. This institution is an equal opportunity provider. For more information, visit our website at baseballhall.org or call 888-HALL-OF-FAME (888-425-5633) or 607-547-7200.

HOROSCOPES

ARIES – MAR 21/APR 20

It could be that you are very aware of things going on around you this week, Aries. Unfortunately, many of them will be out of your control. Still, keep an open mind.

TAURUS – APR 21/MAY 21

Relax and settle down for a few days, Taurus. Take some time to enjoy the people around you and try to travel to some new locales along the way. A little vacation can be helpful.

GEMINI – MAY 22/JUN 21

Don't be surprised if some relatively minor details cause a setback in the days ahead, Gemini. Some heightened focus might be in order. Try to zone in.

CANCER – JUN 22/JUL 22

Cancer, if you need to confront someone this week, do so tactfully. Remember the adage about catching more flies with honey. You'll find that tactic is handy.

LEO – JUL 23/AUG 23

Leo, this week could become a tad challenging as strong astrological energies are affecting people's emotions. Maintain your composure at all costs.

VIRGO – AUG 24/SEPT 22

Your organizational skills are about to increase productivity ten-fold this week, Virgo. Don't be afraid to take big chances and even grab the helm on a large project.

LIBRA – SEPT 23/OCT 23

Libra, write down new goals, as it seems your emotions have changed over the past several days. This way you can channel your ambitions accordingly.

SCORPIO – OCT 24/NOV 22

Scorpio, this week you dare to go against the grain and make your voice heard. Embrace your self-confidence and don't hesitate to take on a leadership role.

SAGITTARIUS – NOV 23/DEC 21

Your presence will be remarkable this week, Sagittarius. You radiate confidence and energy for all to see, and the people around you could be counting on you for leadership.

CAPRICORN – DEC 22/JAN 20

It's not possible to transform the people you know with a magic wand or a twinkle of your nose, Capricorn. Let others be who they are and appreciate their individuality.

AQUARIUS – JAN 21/FEB 18

Aquarius, if you are feeling a bit neglected and unloved this week, ask your partner for some support. He or she will take the cue and the spark will reignite.

PISCES – FEB 19/MAR 20

Some conflicts within the family have you serving as peacemaker, Pisces. Negotiate with others to resolve their differences.

Delhi Village Encourages Flower Planting

The Delhi Beautification Committee invites all Village property owners to join in the celebration of the Village’s Bicentennial by planting flowers in front of their homes and businesses. Everyone is encouraged to show their love for the community and consider planting red geraniums which were used to celebrate the Village’s Centennial Celebration in 1921. Gardeners are also encouraged to plant a palate of red, white, and blue. Delhi has long been known as the Gem of the Catskills. Let’s continue this tradition and make Delhi especially beautiful this summer! The Beautification Committee would like to thank all of the many volunteers for their past support over the years and encourages everyone to join in and plant flowers this summer to celebrate the Village we all call home. For more information or to volunteer for the Delhi Beautification Committee, please contact Dan Ayres at danayres7@gmail.com

COUNTY SHOPPER GUESS WHO

I am an actress born in California on May 14, 1993. I appeared in TV commercials before getting a break in the movie “School of Rock.” Later I had a hit sitcom about a young girl who hosts a web show with friends.
