HOROSCOPES

ARIES - MAR 21/APR 20

Owning real estate has been a wise investment lately, Aries.
Your home may have increased in value. Now could be an opportunity to sell and reap the profits.

TAURUS - APR 21/MAY 21

You want to advance your relationship, Taurus. The best way to do that is to have some serious conversations with your romantic partner. Discuss everything.

GEMINI - MAY 22/JUN 21

Rework your budget, Gemini.
You likely have some home renovations that you want to tackle over the next few weeks, and now is as good a time as any to get started.

CANCER - JUN 22/JUL 22

Your mystique has others interested in emulating your style, Cancer. They can try, but they won't be able to completely replicate your special nature.

LEO - JUL 23/AUG 23

Leo, you may be thinking about starting a new long-term project. Put your vision on paper first so you can map out your plans and see if it is feasible with your current budget.

VIRGO - AUG 24/SEPT 22

Virgo, you will be surrounded by plenty of people interested in social engagement in the days ahead. That is fine news for you, as you enjoy being out on the town.

LIBRA - SEPT 23/OCT 23

Efforts at work have not gone unnoticed, Libra. What you have worked toward has impressed those who are in position to move you further along in the company.

SCORPIO - OCT 24/NOV 22

Scorpio, they may not be on the top of your mind, but legal matters must be worked out soon. This is a good week to revisit your long-term plans if it's been awhile.

SAGITTARIUS - NOV 23/DEC 21

Projects worked on this week will have a significant impact on your future, Sagittarius. You have a magic touch of sorts, so put it to good use in the days
to come.

CAPRICORN - DEC 22/JAN 20

Capricorn, relationships in your life are strengthened over the course of this week. It is because you communicate effectively and with honesty and affection.

AQUARIUS - JAN 21/FEB 18

You are interested in health and nutrition, including certain nutrients, exercise programs or other forms of alternative therapy. Study up on the subject.

PISCES - FEB 19/MAR 20

Pisces, artistic pursuits are piquing your interest, so focus your efforts on practical creative pursuits, like cooking or interior design.

DEC urges New York drivers to 'give turtles a break'

In May and June, Motorists Asked to Watch for Turtles Crossing the Road World Turtle Day® is Monday, May 23

New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) Commissioner Basil Seggos reminds New Yorkers that turtles are nesting in May and June, and asked motorists to "give turtles a brake." In New York, thousands of turtles are killed each year by unsuspecting drivers when turtles cross roads to find nesting areas.

Drivers who see a turtle on the road are encouraged to slow down to avoid hitting it with their vehicle. If the vehicle can safely stop, motorists should consider moving the turtle to the shoulder on the side of the road in the direction it was facing, if drivers are able to safely do so. Motorists are advised not to pick turtles up by their tails, which could injure the turtle. Most turtles, other than snapping turtles, can be picked up safely by the sides of their shell. Snapping turtles have necks that can reach far back and have a strong bite, so if motorists try to help a snapping turtle, they should pick it up by the rear of the shell near the tail using both hands or slide a car mat under the turtle to drag it safely across the road. Do not drag the turtle by the tail as that can dislocate the tail bones.

A licensed wildlife rehabilitator may be able to help if you find an injured turtle.

DEC reminds people not to take turtles home. All native turtles are protected by law and cannot be kept without a DEC permit.

All 11 species of land turtles native to New York are in decline. Turtles are long-lived species and it takes many years for a turtle to reach maturity. Even losing one mature female can have a negative impact on a local population. Learn more about New York's native turtles at DEC's website.

Four species of sea turtles can be found in New York waters, and these turtles are all either threatened or endangered. Visit DEC's website to learn more about sea turtles. If you encounter a sea turtle on the beach, do not put it back in the water, instead call the New York State 24-

Hour Stranding Hotline at 631-369-9829 and a trained responder will provide instructions.

To help turtles and other wildlife, New Yorkers are encouraged to:

- Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, and Rethink: these are simple steps to help protect all wildlife;
- Don't litter: unwanted trash makes its way just about everywhere, including into our creeks, lakes, rivers, and the ocean;
- Don't release balloons or lanterns: releasing balloons into the environment is potentially fatal for many different wildlife, including sea turtles that commonly mistake balloons and plastic bags for prey items like jellyfish;

- Volunteer for beach and park clean-ups; and
- Stay informed and share your knowledge with others.

DEC recognizes May 23 as World Turtle Day®. American Tortoise Rescue (ATR), a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the protection of all species of tortoise and turtle, created World Turtle Day® to celebrate and protect turtles and tortoises and their disappearing habitats around the world. These gentle animals have been around for 200 million years, yet are rapidly disappearing due to smuggling, the exotic food industry, climate change, loss of habitat, and the illegal pet trade.

Industry apprenticeship roundtable events: 'Building the Workforce of Tomorrow'

The Chenango, Delaware, Otsego (CDO) Workforce Development Board, ONC BOCES, Career Opportunities in Rural Education (C.O.R.E.), SUNY Delhi, the NYS Department of Labor (NYS DOL), and SUNY Apprenticeships will hold two free apprenticeship roundtable events in June.

In a press release, U.S. Secretary of Labor Marty Walsh said registered apprenticeships are a proven model for workers and employers that create paths to good paying, middle class jobs.

The U.S. Department of Labor says statistics show that employers who utilize apprenticeships report higher productivity, higher retention rates, and a substantial return on investment.

Local businesses are invited to join the discussion in developing opportunities to build a skilled local workforce through apprenticeships, on-the-job training, and related instruction.

Incentives and funding for NYS DOL and SUNY apprenticeship programs will be presented and discussed, along with pipeline programs, customized trainings, and microcredential programs.

The June 15 roundtable will take place at ONC BOCES in Milford. The June 16 roundtable will take place at SUNY Delhi. Both events will take place from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and a continental breakfast will be served.

Panelists include:

- Erin Finster, workforce specialist, NYS DOL
- Mary Kohan, project manager, Apprenticeship Programs at SUNY
- Danielle Britton, director, workforce development, SUNY Broome
- Jeff Anderson, safety and training, Amphenol

television he gets for being such a great dad.

Outdoorsman Dad

If your dad is most at home with a fishing pole and tackle box, kayaking a nearby body of water, or hiding in a tree stand during hunting season, then gifts that cater to his love of the great outdoors are perfect. Insulated thermoses, waterproof bags for storing phones or wallets, multi-tools, backpacks, and hiking boots make great gifts.

Techy Dad

Does the idea of the latest "smart" offering get your father all revved up? Then purchase gifts that cater to his love of gadgets. Maybe he can use a new tablet or laptop that bridges the gap between home and office. Could it be time to upgrade his smartphone? A doorbell camera or home security kit can help Dad keep an eye on the comings and goings around the house when he's away. Or help him create surround lighting effects that can react to content on the screen or music being played with LED smart lighting strips.

Practical Dad

Some fathers don't want flashy gifts, instead preferring ones that can be used everyday. Think about a new paper shredder or identity block roller stamp to keep sensitive information safe. If Dad takes long road trips, then he might be able to use a car visor extender or a smartphone holder. Shelving, racks or storage straps for the garage also may put a smile on Dad's face.

This year, make Father's Day a smash hit with gifts that cater to Dad's interests

Father's Day gift ideas for all types of dads

This Father's Day, families will gather to thank dads for all they do. Gifts often are part of Father's Day celebrations, and here's a list of gift ideas for dads with various interests.

Gaming Dad

The draw of popular video games doesn't abate for some men as they get older. If your dad is at home with game controller in hand, then gifts that feed his hobby can be ideal.

Virtual reality has made great strides. Devices that enable VR game play and other entertainment may appeal to Dad. There are a few options on the market, like the Oculus, Pico Neo, HTC Vive, and Valve Index.

Another option is to gift the Nintendo Switch Console, which enables your dad to play at home connected to the television or on the go with the handheld controller and screen combination so he never misses a chance to engage in game play.

Sports Dad

Tap into your father's love of sports with gifts tailored to his passion. Baseball and soccer are played during warm months, so tickets to a game is something dads and their children can do together. You also can cheer his team on in front of a new big-screen and local militia during the American Revolution. A British officer was killed and his body buried by a local Black man. Although we cannot now be sure who that man was, he was likely a member of the Hellicus family, who lived along the river during the colonial period.

The Mondore's arrived via Connecticut, Dutchess County and Margaretville by the 1830s and then moved to Roxbury and settled on what became known as Negro Hill (present-day Fanny Brook Road). By the 1840's, as Prattsville was developing as a major tanning center, several Mondore siblings moved to the area of Washington Street. As the years went by, other African American families joined them there, including Shepard Baken from Delaware. In 1854, Alonzo Mondore, and sister Harriet Baken, purchased a one-hundred acre farm near Pratt Rock which was added onto with other purchased. The Mondore-Baken Farm extended to Cozy Hollow Road and to this day, one hundred and seventy years later, it is still owned by the family. The site contains ruins of a cabin and outbuildings, along with a burial ground. Similarly, on the other side to Prattsville, at Negro Hill, there are the same features of the Ransom Mondore homestead.

Ten related men of Mondore Village served during the Civil War, and other men in later wars. The story of these men, and of the extended families who lived in the Prattsville area will be presented by historian and author, Richard Sears Walling at the Pratt Museum on Saturday, June 18, 2023. The program marks the new national holiday of Juneteenth and is sponsored by the museum, which is located at 14540 Main Street (Rt. 23), Prattsville, New York. The town of Prattsville, nestled along the Schoharie River in northwestern Greene County in the Catskills, is the site of the former settlement known as Mondore Village.

What sets this lost historic village apart from other early settlements in the Catskills is that it was home to several African American families, dating to the colonial period and early 19th century. One of the first references to what became Prattsville was a skirmish between British

HSM cemetery tour reservations open

Reservations for the Historical Society of Middletown's (HSM) 9th Living History Cemetery Tour are now open.

The popular tour will be held Saturday, June 18 at Margaretville Cemetery. Rain date is June 19.

In addition to the walking tour, offered from 4 to 6 p.m., there will be a special early bird performance at 2 p.m. on stage at the Open Eye Theater on Main Street to accommodate those with mobility issues.

Reservations for the staged or on-site performances are required and can be made by calling 845-586-4736. Tickets are $20; those 15 or under get in free.

This year's tour will feature portrayals of eight people from Middletown's past. Tour goers led by costumed guides will meet these spirits and learn about their lives.

They include a pair of newspaper editors reflecting on memorable local events of the late 19th and early 20th centuries; the valedictorian of the first graduating class of Margaretville High School in 1896, and Italian immigrant storekeeper, baker and labor recruiter Pasco Dilello.

A barber, a game warden, and a suffragist will be portrayed, as will an early emigrant from New England whose family arrived in the Dunraven area in 1796.

Directors of this year's production are Marge Helenchild and Michelle Macau.

For more information on HSM events and to become a member, visit mtownhistory.org.
