This week you need to slow down and smell the proverbial roses, Taurus. You've likely been moving at breakneck speed and you can't maintain this momentum. Take a break.

Gemini, when someone presents an idea to you, use your intuition to determine if you should get involved. You can trust your gut on this decision.

CANCER - JUN 22/JUL 22

Cancer, even if you are in control of a situation, delegate some of your tasks to others and lighten your load. It's good to build a team of people you can trust and rely upon.

LEO - JUL 23/AUG 23

Seeking Asylum in Delaware County: Boris & Maria's Story: Mon Nov 14th 5:30pm - 8:00pm at Bushel Collective Bushel invites the community for an urgent, special event to help two Russian doctors make their way from an ICE detention facility in Louisiana to settle in Delaware County, New York. This event is organized by the Delaware County Citizens for Refugee Support (DCCRS). It is free and open to the public. Maria and Boris are Russian dissidents and medical doctors who have been active supporters of Alexei Navalny's opposition to Vladimir Putin's regime and campaigners against the Russian invasion of Ukraine. During this event, SUNY-Delhi history professor Dan Gashler will give context on our broken refugee processing system and share an interview he conducted with Boris describing his and Maria's situation in Russia and now in US immigration detention. There will be time for a Q&A and volunteer sign-ups to aid and welcome Maria and Boris in our area. DCCRS has initiated a GoFundMe campaign to raise $25,000 to help Boris and Maria transition from asylum seekers to productive and valued residents of Delaware County. They will need accommodation, medical attention, legal assistance, and financial support until they are able to secure work permits. In addition DCCRS seeks housing options and volunteers to help with food, transportation, supplies, translation, and neighborly support. Please email DCCRS if you can help in any of these areas.

Franklin Farmers Market, winter edition

The Franklin market is extending its 2022 season. After 20 weekly summer markets, organizers will hold two monthly markets to round out the year. The market has migrated from its summer venue to the heated Franklin Railroad and Community Museum and Community Center, 554 Main Street.

As usual, the markets will be Sundays, but only on second Sundays of each month. The pre-Thanks-giving market will be Nov. 13 and the pre-Christmas market will be Dec. 11. The winter markets will be an hour shorter, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Vendors from Franklin and neighboring towns will sell beef, chicken eggs, herbs, honey; beeswax products, fudge, cashew brittle, decoupage, garlic, goat milk soap, gourmet marshmallows, herbal salves and creams, honey, jams and jellies, jewelry and scarves, maple syrup and candies, meat rubs and spice mixes, mushrooms, preserves, a variety of vegetable, relishes, and sunflower oil. For current offerings consult the Facebook page of the market: facebook.com/Franklin-NYFarmersMarket

The museum chronicles the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad (1868 to 1957), which ran through Franklin from the New York City metro on the Atlantic Ocean to the city of Oswego on Lake Ontario. The centerpiece of these exhibits is the meticulously-restored Warwick Official Car 30, the executive jet of its age. In addition, history of the village and town of Franklin is display. franklinrrcommuseum.com

Exhibits at the museum are not scheduled to be opened during the markets. However, they will be open the last Sunday of each month from 1 to 4 p.m. and by appointment - call 607-829-2692 or email franklinrrcommuseum@gmail.com The museum will be open for the Franklin Christmas Stroll Saturday, Dec. 10, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The entire village of Franklin is on the National Historic Registry, and a self-guided walking tour is available. Franklin is situated on state Highway 357, part of the historic Catskill to Susquehanna Turnpike, which in the early 1800s was a main route from the Hudson River landings to the western frontier at the Susquehanna River.

Protect the blood supply by donating this fall

The American Red Cross urges blood donors of all types and those who have never given before to book a time to give blood or platelets now and help keep the blood supply from dropping ahead of the holidays.

People of all blood types are needed, especially platelet donors and those with type O blood – blood products that are critical to keeping hospitals ready to help patients depending on transfusions in the weeks ahead.

Book now by using the Red Cross Blood Donor App, visiting RedCrossBlood.org or calling 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767). As a thank you for taking the time to give this fall, all who come to give Nov. 1-22 will receive a $10 e-gift card by email to a merchant of choice. Details are available at rcblood.org/perks.

Upcoming blood donation opportunities Nov. 1-15:

To donate blood, download the American Red Cross Blood Donor App, visit RedCrossBlood.org, call 1-800-RED CROSS (1-800-733-2767) or enable the Blood Donor Skill on any Alexa Echo device to make an appointment or for more information. All blood types are needed to ensure a reliable supply for patients. A blood donor card or driver's license or two other forms of identification are required at check-in. Individuals who are 17 years of age in most states (16 with parental consent where allowed by state law), weigh at least 110 pounds and are in generally good health may be eligible to donate blood. High school students and other donors 18 years of age and younger also have to meet certain height and weight requirements.

Another way to support the lifesaving mission of the Red Cross is to become a volunteer blood donor ambassador at Red Cross blood drives. Blood donor ambassadors help greet, check-in and thank blood donors to ensure they have a positive donation experience.

Volunteers can also serve as transportation specialists, playing a vital role in ensuring lifesaving blood products are delivered to nearby hospitals. For more information and to apply for a either position, call 607-785-7207, email RecruitWNY@redcross.org or visit redcross.org/volunteertoday
