Give thanks for good health: donate blood or platelets

The American Red Cross urges donors to shake up their holiday traditions and plan a time to give blood or platelets in the coming weeks.

Blood and platelet donations drop more than 20% during holiday weeks. Seasonal illness and the threat of winter weather can add more concern during a time of year that is traditionally hard on the nation's blood supply.

Give thanks and give back - now is the time to make and keep donation appointments. Book a time to give blood or platelets at RedCrossBlood.org.
