YOU'RE INVITED TO A PERFORMANCE OF

The Trial of Major André

A PLAY RECOUNTING THE FATE OF THE INFAMOUS BRITISH SPY

★

IT IS SEPTEMBER 29TH, 1780.

It has just been discovered that American General Benedict Arnold has betrayed his country and planned to surrender West Point to the British. Arnold's accomplice, British Major John André, has been captured and faces a miliary tribunal at the Old Dutch Church in Tappan, New York.

A board of officers has been appointed who will decide whether or not Major André is a guilty of espionage

Written and performed by two local educators, Sean Grady and Gary Petagine

LIVE AT THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 7:30PM | FREE ADMISSION!

2880 Crompond Road (Route 202), Yorktown Heights, NY 10598

Park in the paved lot off of Route 132 and enter through the front of the Church