

Proclamation

Whereas, The Arkansas Extension Homemakers/Home Demonstration work started in Arkansas in 1912, with the purpose of empowering individuals and families to improve their quality of living through continuing education, leadership development and community service will celebrate its 111th anniversary this year, and

Whereas, The Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council is a volunteer organization associated with the University of Arkansas System Division of Agriculture Cooperative Extension Service, which offers the latest research-based information in the areas of family and consumer sciences, agriculture and community development, and

Whereas, The Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council has local councils in 70 counties in Arkansas, supports 4-H club work as a vital part of the county Extension program, develops leadership among persons who compose the Extension Homemakers group and interprets and sponsors state and nationwide projects approved by the State Council and the University of Arkansas System Division of Agriculture Cooperative Extension Service, and

Whereas, The Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council, its county councils and local clubs give assistance to a variety of worthy causes, including hospitals and other health facilities, food pantries, day care centers, charitable organizations and families in crisis, and

Whereas, The Arkansas Extension Homemakers Council offers opportunities to local residents to learn and preserve heirloom arts and crafts.

Now, Therefore, I Jessie Griffin, do proclaim May 2023, as Arkansas Extension Homemakers Month and call upon the people of Drew County to join their fellow citizens across Arkansas in recognizing and participating in this program.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of ARKANSAS to be affixed this 16th day of May 2023.

_____, Mayor of or

Jessie L. Griffin, County Judge of Drew

