Tampa Bay Beer Week is March 3 – 11.

February 2018, Tampa, FL – Get ready to celebrate one of Tampa’s best-known attractions, great craft beer, during this year’s Tampa Bay Beer Week.

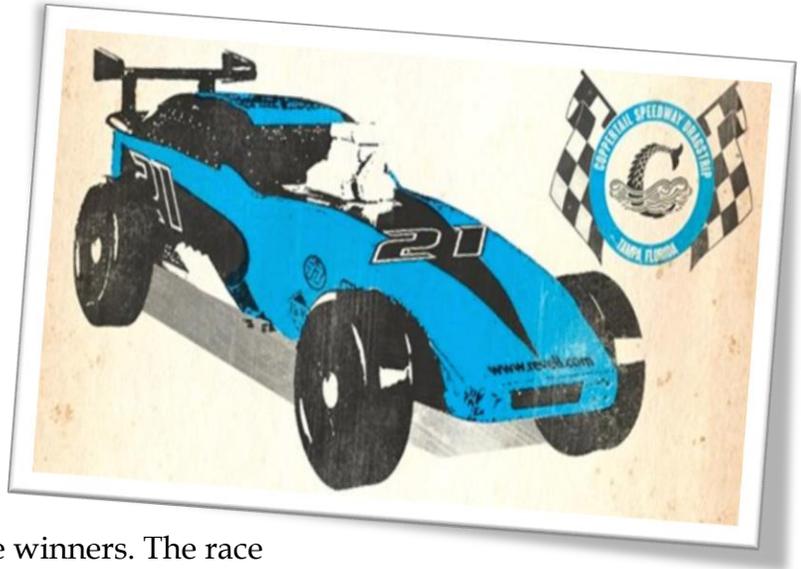

Established in 2012, Tampa Bay Beer week is planned by a committee of brewers, brewery owners, beer distributors, home-brewers and beer enthusiasts to advance the Tampa Bay beer culture through education, events and marketing. The event helps promote the diverse local, national and international beer culture that encompasses the greater Tampa Bay area.

At Coppertail Brewing Co., beer week is ten days long with several events planned. Beer lovers can choose from a live concert, a drag race, food events, and the first appearance in Florida of several guest brewers’ beer. Here’s the lineup:
